Code of Conduct

- Adults in Scouting respect the dignity of themselves and others.
- Adults in Scouting demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility, recognizing at all times that their words and actions are an example to other members of the Movement.
- Adults in Scouting act at all times in accordance with Scouting principles, thereby setting a suitable example for all.
- Adults in Scouting do not use the Movement to promote their own beliefs, behaviours or practices where these are not compatible with Scouting principles.
- Adults in Scouting act with consideration and good judgment in all interpersonal relationships both inside and outside Scouting.
- Adults in Scouting respect everyone's right to personal privacy at all times. They take special care where sleeping, changing of clothing, bathing and ablutions are associated with any Scouting activity.
- Adults in Scouting avoid unaccompanied and unobserved activities with youth members wherever possible.
- Adults in Scouting for their own protection, should avoid potentially compromising situations by ensuring, where reasonably possible, that at least two adults are in attendance whilst supervising and/or accompanying youth members.
- It is recognized that, in certain circumstances, it may be necessary for a leader or adult, whilst acting responsibly and exercising their "duty of care", to be alone with a youth member.
- Adults in Scouting realize that bullying, physical or verbal abuse, neglect or any other type of abuse, is unacceptable conduct by any member of the Movement.
- Adults in Scouting must report any conduct seen or heard that does not comply with this Code of Conduct.

All Adults are required to abide by the policies of Scouts Australia.
